

Major Christian Leaders Praise President George H.W. Bush's Legacy

The world grieved last night when former President George H.W. Bush died at 94 years old. Reports indicate the 41st president died peacefully in his home in Houston, Texas.

Prominent Christian leaders and politicians—including Bush's son, former president George W. Bush—took to social media to mourn his passing and celebrate his legacy. Here is what they had to say:

"President George H.W. Bush leaves behind a seemingly irreplaceable void in the fabric of America's political landscape. He was a decorated war hero, venerated statesman, devoted father..."
