

Marco Rubio's Trying to Close the Deal With Iowa

With only three days remaining before the first-in-the-nation Iowa Republican Caucus, U.S. Sen. Marco Rubio (R-Fla.) has released his final Iowa TV spot.

The 30-second spot, titled "Defeating Hillary," Rubio shares what he believes is at stake this election, and why Hillary Clinton must be defeated:

"America is exceptional. Every generation before us met the great challenges of their time. But after seven long years of this president, we feel our country slipping away.

"This election is about defeating Hillary Clinton and about saving what makes America unique."
