

Marilyn Hickey on Conversion, Breakthrough Prayer and Godly Homes

Lisa Brockman, author of Out of Zion, is a six-generation Mormon whose journey took her from the faith of her Mormon ancestors to her conversion to Christianity. A friend's simple question set her on that journey: "Lisa, how do you know the church is true?" Her initial reaction was to attempt to convert her friend, but he set out to introduce her to a Jesus she had never met. As she studied the Bible, she discovered a God that embodied love. Lisa came to realize she was powerless to save herself and needed a Savior who could offer her eternal life.
