

Marilyn Hickey Says There Is a Process in the Miraculous

Do you need a miracle in your life? Did you know that there is process in the miraculous? If you follow the Holy Spirit, do what He says and speak your faith, you can see miracles. Sometimes, the worst place for you can become God's biggest place of the revelation of a miracle. Your problem is not too big for a miracle. Even if your need feels like a cursed place in your life—sickness, finances, family trouble, job—you can receive a miracle. A key to getting your miracle is knowing that the act in the natural makes way for the supernatural.

Do you need to jump-start your talks with God? Are you looking for a roadmap to learn how to pray effectively? Despite whether you have an outgoing personality or are the quiet type, God longs to connect with you. God genuinely loves you and desires to have a conversation with you. Regardless of your background, experiences or training, the tools in Sarah Bowling's book, Hey God, Can We Talk, will empower you to have deeper and more intimate conversations with God. You can transform your conversations with God from distant and religious into meaningful and authentic dialogues by using the hands-on tools in the book.

What makes Good Friday good? Good Friday is important because it is the beginning of God's provision for us. The work on the cross allows us to be reconciled with Him. Good Friday is a day of celebrating Jesus—His sacrifice and His resurrection. Jesus went through death for us because He loves us. Did you know that Good Friday is reflective with the Jewish feast of Passover? After the first Passover, the Jewish people were freed. After the crucifixion, believers were freed because His body, having been broken for us, brings us life, health and salvation.

Check out each of these episodes and many more on the Today with Marilyn and Sarah podcast on Charisma Podcast Network.{eoa}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.