

Massively Viral Video Will Make You Cry in Awe of Jesus' Name

"What a beautiful name it is/The Name of Jesus Christ my king/What a beautiful Name it is/Nothing compares to this."

Voices of Lee have done it again.

The choir from the Church of God's Lee University stunned the masses with their rendition of Hillsong's "What a Beautiful Name It Is" performed in the university's chapel. The video has garnered a whopping 13 million views since it was posted less than a week ago.

The vocal groups of Lee University—which I attended—are known for their incredible performances. Full disclosure: I am not. I cannot even clap on beat. But they're really good. And that's not just my opinion.

"I really love this song right now. It's so powerful. And the Voices of Lee just made it even better! You have to watch (and hear) from a group of college students," Kirk Cameron posted about the video.

Lee alumni and attendees have stormed the airways with their talent. Jordan Smith won NBC's The Voice. Clark Beckham and Phil Stacey both placed on Fox's American Idol. Campus Choir led worship on a plane. Voices of Lee alumni took third in NBC's The Sing Off.

OK, OK—stop listening to me brag and just enjoy the video.

{eoa}