

Michael Tait Releases Confessional Statement

Michael Tait, the former frontman of two of the most influential bands in Christian music history, DC Talk and the Newsboys, has broken his silence following his abrupt departure from the Newsboys earlier this year.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

In a confessional statement posted to Instagram, Tait confirmed reports that had circulated in recent days, acknowledging struggles with drug and alcohol abuse, as well as addressing the shocking allegations made regarding sexual abuse of several young men over the years.