

Mike Bickle, Reinhard Bonnke Join Forces for This One Thing

While Gov. Bobby Jindal works to plan a stadium prayer event in Baton Rouge so intercessors can respond to a nation in crisis, Mike Bickle is holding a stadium event in Kansas City to help today's youth focus on one thing.

Thousands of young adults will gather for the International House of Prayer's Onething conference at the Kansas City Convention Center Dec. 28-31. Believers will gather to set their hearts to live with passion for Jesus through extended times of worship, teaching of the Word and ministering in the power of the Holy Spirit.

"The main theme of the conference is focused on calling people to a Joel 2 response in face of God's promise of a transforming national awakening and revival and a national crisis," Bickle, director of IHOPKC, tells Charisma News.

Speakers and worship leaders include Bickle, Allan Hood, president of the IHOP University and associate director of IHOP, Reinhard Bonnke, an international evangelist and founder of Christ for all Nations, Misty Edwards, senior leader and worship leader at IHOPKC, Kari Jobe, worship pastor at Gateway Church, and worship leader Phil Wickham.

Bickle will speak on this crisis and call to prayer on the first and last nights of the conference, Dec. 28 and Dec. 31. Hood will speak on the national crisis and intercession on Dec. 29. Bonnke will speak on revival on Dec. 30.

"We feel very urgent about the crisis in the America and along with our conviction of a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit," says Bickle. "People can join us by the web stream without any charge.”

Click here to learn more about the Onething 2014 conference.