

Mike Lindell Drops 2-Hour Documentary Exposing Election Fraud

MyPillow founder and CEO Mike Lindell debuted a new, two-hour documentary today on the topic of massive fraud in the recent U.S. presidential election.

Absolute Proof, free and available at mypillow.com, organizes and itemizes the side of the story opposite to what has been portrayed in secular media.

Ironically, this comes on the same day Time magazine released an issue with a cover story titled, "The Secret History of The Shadow Campaign That Saved the 2020 Election," describing the organized campaign that canceled what former President Donald J. Trump's supporters say was his landslide victory.

One of the most astonishing items of the Time article was the role played by Christians in the election fraud:

As it was being finalized, Christian leaders signaled their interest in joining, further broadening its reach.

The statement was released on Election Day, under the names of Chamber CEO Thomas Donohue, AFL-CIO president Richard Trumka, and the heads of the National Association of Evangelicals and the National African American Clergy Network. "It is imperative that election officials be given the space and time to count every vote in accordance with applicable laws," it stated. "We call on the media, the candidates and the American people to exercise patience with the process and trust in our system, even if it requires more time than usual." The groups added, "Although we may not always agree on desired outcomes up and down the ballot, we are united in our call for the American democratic process."

Absolute Proof, hosted by Lindell himself, carefully and factually outlines—in parallel terms to the Time magazine story—the trail of lies and misinformation. From the lie about election machines not being connected to the internet to foreign interference to the thousands of affidavits describing on-the-ground fraud, the evidence is overwhelming.

Simply put, the election was stolen, first by a wholesale changing of laws, primarily in five swing cities in key states to remove any form of checking of ballots, then by flooding these cities with massive amounts of preprinted and otherwise fraudulent ballots in the middle of the night. Then, to make sure it all succeeded, an approximately 68% computer algorithm ensured the transformation of a massive landslide victory for Trump into a Biden “win.”

According to Lindell and others who have examined the evidence, the win for Donald J. Trump was so massive and unexpected that the machine cheating was unable to catch up. This caused the machines to be shut off in a coordinated fashion in the middle of the night so that preprinted and otherwise fraudulent ballots could be trucked in and run through the machines to make up the loss.

As bestselling author of God, Trump and COVID-19 Stephen Strang says, “I believe that behind the craziness manifested by so-called ‘Trump Derangement Syndrome’ are principalities and powers.” He echoes the words of Scripture in John 8:32, “You shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free.”

“We put this documentary together in six days, and it’s absolute proof; it’s the miracle we’ve all been waiting for,” Lindell says. He encourages believers, their family and friends to visit to view the documentary. {eo}
