

Mike Pence: I Believe In the Power of Prayer

Vice President Mike Pence firmly believes in the power of prayer.

After the Sutherland Springs shooting, many commentators lashed out, criticizing prayer and calling for action, but that response fails to understand what happens when we talk to God.

In a video posted to Fox News, Pence shares how he believes prayer makes a massive difference.

Watch the video to see his full comments.

I'm a believer, and I believe in prayer, and at this moment of such heartbreak and loss in the #SutherlandSprings community, what most Americans are most able to do is to pray for those families.

– Vice President Pence (@VP) Nov. 8, 2017