

Mike Pence Responds With Perfect Bible Verse After Author Brands Him ‘Most Successful Christian Supremacist’

Vice President Mike Pence takes no issue with a new book that labels him the United States’ “most successful Christian supremacist.”

Biographer Michael D’Antonio, author of the new book, The Shadow President: The Truth About Mike Pence, wrote that Pence feels God “calling him” to “function as a president-in-waiting.”

“With his oath of office, Vice President Mike Pence became ... the most successful Christian supremacist in American history,” the book notes.

Pence, in an interview with CBN News, responded to D’Antonio’s book by referencing a passage from James 1.

“The Bible says, ‘Count it all joy when you endure trials of many kinds,’” the vice president told the news outlet. “Any time I’m criticized for my belief in Jesus Christ, I just breathe a prayer of praise.” {eo}
