Seventeen days after posting his viral video, Winger shared in a separate video that Hinn was attempting to get the previous video, which has over 900,000 views, removed from YouTube. In the four-hour video, Winger argued that Hinn was financially and spiritually abusive throughout his years of ministry.

Winger's interview with Charisma comes after the outlet posted a two-part interview with Hinn. Matarazzo said, "We're trying to platform voices the best way that we can as we see God moving

"You are not an anti-charismatic-heresy-hunter, but you are a Continuationist," Matarazzo said to Winger.

Winger shared that his ministry consists of answering "tough questions about the Bible" and "verse by verse teaching" online, with occasional topical discussions such as the one he posted regarding Hinn.
