

Ministry Is Smashing the Fear of Man to Gain Heavenly Treasure

Caleb Wampler and Joshua Smith of Kingdom Encounters International are hitting the gospel trail once again, traveling halfway around the world to preach the Good News to the people of Asia. The self-made video shows them at the airport ready to make the journey.

“I can’t wait to see what God is going to do there,” Smith says. “Continue to pray for us. We need you to pray for the people there. Pray for protection and safety, but most importantly that God’s name is proclaimed and that the people come to know Jesus.”

The ministry has pressed through calls to postpone the crusades due to increasing instability in the region as well as political pressure mounting due to Covid-19 restrictions.

Wampler also asks viewers to pray for an important member of the Kingdom Encounters International team who has been detained at the airport due to visa issues. “We’re still holding onto the hope they can make,” Wampler says. “We need a miracle right now for that to happen.”
