

Miracles So Great: Christian Woman Worships From Her Cancer Bed

Cancer is a horrible disease. It has devastated lives, and current statistics indicate that almost no one will leave this world without either suffering from it or knowing of someone who has. Treatment can be arduous, and the uncertainty surrounding future recovery can be terrifying.

One thing is for sure—anyone who is going through a cancer battle can always do with a bit of hope. And that's exactly what one Christian woman offered Mallorie Bush Cochran, who began chemotherapy in late April while 22 weeks pregnant.

Jamina Johnson decided to go and minister to Cochran with nothing but her heart-stirring vocals. The beautiful moment of sung worship was captured by Cochran's father, who posted it on Facebook. {eoa}
