

Morning Rundown: Evangelist Exposes 'Darker Turn' of Taylor Swift's Music

Here's a quick rundown of the top stories on :

Evangelist Exposes 'Darker Turn' of Taylor Swift's Music

An evangelist who recently went viral for his critical response to pop star Taylor Swift's latest album is explaining his commentary and why he's encouraging Christian parents to be more discerning.

"I'm not an anti-Taylor guy," Shane Pruitt told CBN News. "I'm [a] pro-Gospel guy."

He continued, "Anything that I know is largely affecting parents, or Christians, or people in the church that seems to ... be anti-Gospel, I think we lovingly call it out."

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Hillsong Settles Assault Case Against Former Staff Member

Hillsong has settled an assault case against one of their former staff members, Jason Mays, in the assault against Anna Crenshaw.

According to ChurchLeaders, the Australian-based megachurch has settled with a former Hillsong college student, Crenshaw. She filed a lawsuit against the church for mishandling her report of sexual assault against Mays.

Back in 2016, then 18-year-old Crenshaw says she was at a social gathering when Mays inappropriately touched her and kissed her stomach.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

Hundreds of Gen Zers Make Decisions for Jesus at University of Tennessee: 'God Is Moving!'

There is a spiritual awakening taking place on college campuses across that country that God alone can take credit for.

Against the backdrop of anti-Israel protests, violence and death chants among colleges and universities recently, some GenZers are choosing instead to uplift Jesus Christ.

On Wednesday, 8,000 students gathered on the campus of the University of Tennessee to praise His Name alone.

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!