High School Student Denied Diploma for Praising Jesus 'Off-Script'

There have been some sketchy high school graduation speeches in the past, and many did not have their diplomas held back due to the nature of the student's speech.

But throw an off-script praise of Jesus Christ into today's society and you are sure to ruffle some feathers.

This very thing happened to recent graduate Micah Price of Campbell County High School in Alexandria, Kentucky.

3 Demonic Shows on Hulu to Keep Your Family Away From

During this day and age, it seems nearly impossible to find shows and movies that are safe and family friendly. Unfortunately, it seems that the list of what not to watch just keeps growing.

Hulu in particular has started to roll out plenty of down-right creepy content. Coming this June (just in time for pride month), Hulu plans on releasing the LGBTQ-themed dating show, "I Kissed a Boy."

As the Christian Post reported, the show is the United Kingdom's first LGBTQ reality show. Ten gay men will initiate interest in the other men by kissing them. If a man does not get kissed, he will then be released from the show.

‘Horrificed’: Ray Comfort Reacts to Viral Pope Francis Comments

Evangelist Ray Comfort was “horrified” by Pope Francis’ recent proclamation that human beings are “fundamentally good,” telling CBN News he believes the pontiff missed a significant opportunity to share the Gospel with a watching world.

“[I was] horrified, because the pope’s got a wonderful platform,” Comfort said. “I mean, here’s an opportunity to ... tell people how they can find everlasting life.”

Comfort’s statements came after an intense debate erupted earlier this month over Pope Francis’ response to journalist Norah O’Donnell’s question about what gives the pontiff hope.
