

Morning Rundown: Jim Jordan and the Spiritual Source of Political Deception

Here's a quick rundown of the top stories on :

Jim Jordan and the Spiritual Source of Political Deception

Romans chapter 13 brings up a difficult topic for today's America. A topic many would like to ignore.

The first verse of the chapter says, "Let every person be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are appointed by God."

Nothing happens without God knowing about it. Everything that took place before, during and after the 2020 election, and every election there ever will be, is known by God.

Mario Murillo: Unstoppable Holy Spirit Fire Spreading Over America

There is fire from the mountains! I probably should not tell you this, but 1,553 people squeezed into a sanctuary with only 750 seats.

It may also be wise for me not to tell you what happened at Radiant Church, Sunday night. But I can't help myself. I will do both.

Yes indeed, everyone—by some kind of divine compression—found a place to sit. And yes, it is dangerous to express my real feelings because you may not believe me.

Jonathan Cahn's Explosive 'The Return of the Gods' Returns to Bestseller Lists, Revealing Present-Day Origins in Ancient Mysteries

Almost eight months after release in September 2022, Jonathan Cahn's "The Return of the Gods" is back on the New York Times bestseller list. It's hit the charts on "The Wall Street Journal" and "Publishers Weekly."

So, why does this book have so many people stirring for the truth?

"Western civilization was basically exorcised of these things. When the gospel came in, it was basically a mass exorcism," Cahn said in an interview with Glenn Beck. "But the warning is to America, to the world, that if it ever turns away from God, if it ever empties the house of God, it's not going to stay empty...the same things that were cast out of it at the beginning of the age are coming back into it."

 Bring Charisma magazine home with a subscription today!