Joseph Z's Incredible Testimony: 'I Had the Boldness of the Holy Spirit Come on Me'

Prophetic voice Joseph Z has taken the world by storm with his accurate words and bold promptings from the Holy Spirit. In a recent podcast episode with Rebecca Lamb Weiss, Z had the opportunity to share the miraculous ways God has been pouring into him starting at just nine-years-old.

"When I first got born-again it was after I'd first heard the voice of God," Z says. "I was nine years old when I first heard the audible voice of God. I was walking in a field and I heard my name shouted over the trees. It sounded kind of like wind; it sounded like I was being drawn. I was in this field [and] I heard it to the point I went back to my house over and over again."

Much like a modern-day Samuel, Z kept going to his father to see if he had been calling for him, but this was not the case. Z also remembered being rejected early on by part of his family when the Lord began to call out for him.

Chris Reed Sheds More Light on MorningStar Resignation

Chris Reed continues to provide further details following his resignation from MorningStar Ministries.

"I don't even like showing communications, especially not salacious or incriminating or conversations you're having where you're being light-hearted just with friends, but because no one from MorningStar's willing to speak up and to defend my tenure there, I have to show you communications that are relevant to the situation. Not just communications to trash people or to embarrass them, but communications to show you what you're being presented with now," Reed states.

Not disclosing the name of the person, Reed showed text communication he had with someone he claims is one of the top executives at MorningStar. This discussion took place back in January of this year.

Jonathan Cahn's Prophetic Revelation on Pope Francis

The Pope may need to reconsider his current course of theology.

In a message regarding a prophetic sign that took place back in December of 2023, rabbi and New York Times best-selling author Jonathan Cahn unlocked powerful prophetic revelations about the Pope. Now, as we see the Pope denying the truth as Jesus as the only way to God, this message gives insight into what's happening with Pope Francis in the spiritual realm.

"On Dec. 17, Pope Francis was preparing to do something," Cahn says. "To issue that decree that would open the door to homosexuality in Catholic doctrine and practice."
