Bickle Bombshell Requires Righteous and Redemptive Response

When one of the world's premier Christian leaders comes under fire from accusations, it is absolutely critical that we understand the way the Bible instructs us to proceed. Proverbs 6:16-19 tells us that there are "six things the Lord hates, yes, seven are an abomination to him ... a false witness who speaks lies, and he who sows discord among brethren." Therefore, we must proceed with extreme caution. The Bible also tells us, "Do not listen to an accusation against an elder unless it is confirmed by two or three witnesses" (1 Tim. 5:19, NLT).

Proving the Slippery Slope: The Growing Acceptance of Polygamy

For decades, conservative Christians have been warning about our nation's slide down the proverbial slippery slope, only to be rebuffed for crying wolf. "There is no slippery slope!" we have been told repeatedly.

That's why, for quite a few years now, I have documented just how real (and slippery) that slope is.

For example, in my February 2020 article titled, "As We Mindlessly Careen Our Way Down the Slippery Slope," I wrote:

Tragedy Strikes as Church Bombing Claims Multiple Lives

A horrific attack unfolded on Sunday morning at the Mindanao State University gymnasium in Marawi City, Philippines, during a Catholic Mass, resulting in the death of four individuals and leaving over 50 injured, according to media reports.

ISIS claimed responsibility for the bombing, specifically targeting what they referred to as a “large gathering of Christian disbelievers” in the predominantly Muslim city, as reported by the SITE Intelligence Group. The attack occurred at the onset of Advent, a period leading up to Christmas when Mass attendance typically surges.

Lanao del Sur province Governor Mamintal Adiong Jr. confirmed over 40 individuals were receiving treatment at a local government hospital, with others treated for minor injuries at the university’s infirmary. {eoa}
