Olympic Games Demands Surfer Remove Image of Jesus on Board

The Olympics has been filled with controversy surrounding Christianity this year, and it appears that these storms are not over yet.

A Brazilian surfer competing in this year's Olympics, Joao Chianca, was reportedly forced to remove images of Jesus Christ on his surfboard before the start of the games.

The X account DiedSuddenly posted the image of Chianca with his boards, which resembled Christ the Redeemer with the Brazilian flag in the background.

Hollywood Reacts to Satanic Opening Ceremony at the Olympics

Hollywood has weighed in on the controversy surrounding the opening ceremony of the Olympics.

Comedian Rob Schneider is one of the latest celebrities to stand up against the Olympics for the drag queen mockery of the Last Supper.

"I am sorry to say to ALL the world's GREATEST ATHELETES, I wish you ALL THE BEST, but I cannot watch an Olympics that disrespects Christianity and openly celebrates Satan," he posted on X.
