President Trump's First Cabinet Meeting Prayer: 'Thank You for Anointing Us'

During the Trump administration's first Cabinet meeting, something wholesome and righteous took place: prayer.

Before starting the meeting, the president asked for someone to say grace. Former megachurch pastor and now U.S. Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Secretary Scott Turner took the challenge, and prayed for the Lord's anointing and leading to be upon this new presidential administration.

"Father, we thank you for this awesome privilege to be in Your presence," Turner prays. "God, thank You that You've allowed us to see. This day, the Bible says that Your mercies are new every morning. And Father God, we give You the glory and honor."

How Can We Thrive During an Economic Collapse?

In a recent podcast episode, prophetic teacher Joseph Z delivers a powerful message on the looming threat of economic collapse and how believers can thrive despite it. Drawing from biblical history—specifically Joseph’s role in Egypt (Gen. 47:15)—he explains that financial crises are nothing new. More importantly, he reveals how God’s economy stands above the world’s failing systems, offering hope and provision to those who trust in Him.

Rather than promoting fear, Joseph Z equips viewers with practical, faith-based strategies to prepare for economic uncertainty. He connects past financial disasters, like the Great Depression, to today’s fragile economy, warning that another collapse is likely. However, he emphasizes that through obedience to God’s principles, believers can access divine provision and even experience supernatural wealth transfer.

If you’re concerned about financial instability or seeking wisdom on navigating uncertain times, this is a must-watch.

Joseph Z's message offers insight, encouragement, and a road map to financial resilience rooted in faith. Don't miss this eye-opening episode—click to watch now!
