Rebuilding the Church: A Blueprint for Healing and Renewal

In the aftermath of numerous scandals and moral failures in the modern church, author and speaker Natalie Runion believes it's time for Christians to rebuild from the rubble. Speaking with Charisma Media, Runion dives into the heart of her latest book, "The House That Jesus Built," which serves as a guide for restoring the foundations of a fractured church.

Runion, who previously authored "Raised to Stay," addresses the deconstruction movement—a growing trend where believers dismantle aspects of their faith due to spiritual abuse, disillusionment and disappointment with church leadership. For Runion, deconstruction is not inherently negative. "We have this huge task as a generation to rebuild," she says, "and thankfully we have a blueprint for that in the Word of God."

Drawing on the story of "The Three Little Pigs," Runion uses the nursery rhyme as a metaphor for the church's current state. She likens the pigs who built hastily with weak materials to modern church leaders who, in some cases, have rushed to build on shaky foundations. "Now we're seeing the enemy come in and huff and puff and blow our churches down through moral failures, sheep that are being abused—all the things that led us to this deconstruction," she explains.

Kim Clement's 2014 Prophecy Resurfaces Amid Jaguar Wright

Claims

Donné Clement Petruska, daughter of the late prophetic voice Kim Clement, has recently revealed a connection between singer-songwriter Jaguar Wright's explosive claims and her father's prophetic words from years ago.

In a video posted on her YouTube channel, Petruska delves into what she believes is growing evidence of occult practices infiltrating high levels of society, globalist organizations and politics, shining a light on the evil in the world today.

Wright, who has become known for her outspoken criticism of the music industry and its leading figures, including Sean "Diddy" Combs, Jay-Z and Beyoncé, made headlines recently by endorsing Donald Trump for the 2024 presidential election. In a surprising turn for someone not typically aligned with conservative politics, Wright declares, "It has to be Trump, because if we vote DNC, we're voting for liars. It's just that simple. The DNC is lying." Petruska admits she was shocked by Wright's comments, explaining, "This is not a person who is traditionally Republican or conservative at all."
