'Son of God' Pastor Arrested for Wicked Sex Crimes

A pastor was arrested after being caught up in a weeks-long stand-off with police officers.

As the BBC reported, police have been trying to arrest Filipino pastor Apollo Quiboloy after he was charged with crimes of sex trafficking, coercion and fraud. The Western Journal noted how Quiboloy had "sex with women and underage girls who faced threats of abuse and 'eternal damnation' unless they catered to [him]."

Quiboloy claimed to be the "appointed son of God," using his role of authority for evil. His ministry, Kingdom of Jesus Christ, is reported to have between 6-7 million followers. The ministry is said to have locations in 200 locations. Part of the crimes Quiboloy committed included trafficking children from the Philippines to America, where the BBC says they were "forced to solicit money for a bogus charity."MR

Kim Clement's Spectacular September Prophecy: 'The Tide Is Turning'

Are changes heading our way for the month of September?

In an Aug. 30, 2014 prophecy, Kim Clement prophesied about a September where a tide would be turning which would greatly affect Israel.

“Listen to the Word of the Lord. What do I have planned for September? What about Israel? What I’m about to tell you, says the Spirit, is not only for the land of Israel and the people of Israel, but this is for you, says the Lord,” Clement prophesied. “The tide is turning for Israel. The tide is turning for you.”

This Is How to Cast Demons Out of Your Home

In one of his latest videos, Isaiah Saldivar discussed how believers dealing with demonic activity in their homes can command these entities to flee.

“If you open up a door, and I’m talking in your physical home, and you give a demon a legal right, they will come in to disturb you,” Saldivar says. “And a lot of people don’t know what to do when they have a demon in their home.”

While many people might not know what to do in this situation, Saldivar reminds Christians that they have the ultimate authority over these demonic entities.
