UPDATE: Lindell and Driscoll Reconcile as Sword Swallower Responds

Mark Driscoll and John Lindell have reconciled following controversy at the Stronger Men's Conference.

During the conference, Driscoll called out the spirit of Jezebel for being present due to sword swallower Alex Magala's performance where he removed his shirt and climbed up a pole.

Lindell called Driscoll off of the stage, and the two of them spoke in private. Following this discussion, the two came back to address the matter.

IHOPKC Officially Announces Shuttering of Ministries

International House of Prayer Kansas City (IHOPKC) has officially announced via press release the staggered closure of ministries in the wake of the sexual and spiritual abuse scandal involving founder Mike Bickle.

While reports the day prior to the press release had originated from emails and audio from IHOPKC sources, the organization has confirmed that certain closures are happening:

After much prayer and deliberation with the Board, we have come to the conclusion that we will wind down many of the ministry and training expressions of IHOPKC, including IHOPU, Forerunner Church, CEC, and Internships. Our ongoing focus as a ministry will remain on the 24/7 prayer room and intercession for Israel.

Americans Are Cheering for Terrorists? The World Is Upside Down

On Sunday morning of this week Iran launched more than 300 rockets and drones to destroy Israel. But Israeli forces intercepted 99% of the weapons—and an ominous silence fell on the region as Israeli President Benjamin Netanyahu weighed his options about when and how to retaliate.

In times past, the United States would have offered unanimous support to the Jewish state, which was brutally attacked by Hamas terrorists from their base in Gaza on Oct. 7 of last year. That attack resulted in the deaths of 1,160 Israelis.

But Americans don't stand in unified support for Israel today. There are actually people living in the United States, including members of the U.S. Congress, who want to see Israel wiped off the map.
