Young Evangelist's Prayer With Satanist Goes Viral for All the Right Reasons

A young Christian evangelist's conversation with a Satanist is getting some attention after the fascinating and powerful exchange was posted on social media.

Bryce Crawford's video of his chat with the purported Satanist named Chad has received hundreds of thousands of views since being posted earlier this summer, The Christian Post reported.

"I'm Satanic," Chad proclaimed at the start of the interaction, explaining it means he worships "one of the Satans." He said the hypocritical nature of Christians led him away from Jesus and toward Satanism.

How Many Shooters Tried to Assassinate Trump?

In the wake of the near-assassination of former President Donald Trump on Saturday, July 13, 2024, there have been several independent investigations into the event, as the government’s reasons and narrative simply are not jiving with many.

Former sniper for the United States Marine Corps., as well as a former Green Beret sniper, John Cullen, also a ballistic analysis expert, joined Clay Martin on the “Tommy’s Podcast” on Rumble. Discussing this sort of subject could likely get one banned from platforms such as Meta and YouTube.

During their episode, Cullen alludes to Trump having been in the middle of a firefight at the Butler, Pennsylvania rally, with multiple shooters on-site.
