

National Right to Life Annual Convention to be Held in Jacksonville, Fla.

The National Right to Life's annual convention, "Bringing America Back to Life," will be held Thursday, June 23, through Sunday, June 25 in Jacksonville, Fla.

The convention, which will be at the Hyatt Regency Jacksonville Riverfront, is being hosted by National Right to Life's Florida affiliate, Florida Right to Life.

The event includes over 70 workshops and general sessions featuring expert speakers who will address the broad spectrum of pro-life issues. Some guest speakers being featured are former Planned Parenthood worker and volunteer Abby Johnson, Melissa Ohden, an abortion survivor, and Fred Barnes.

The convention kicks off with an opening general session featuring Barnes, executive editor of The Weekly Standard and Fox News Channel contributor. There will be a special screening of the pro-life movie, Doonby, at 7:45 Thursday evening, an hour after the last session concludes.

National Right to Life is hosting a Republican Presidential Candidate Forum on Friday morning. Confirmed speakers include Rick Santorum, Herman Cain and Ron Paul. The convention will also feature recording artist Jamie Thietten, who will perform for the annual Prayer Breakfast and closing banquet.

National Teens for Life will also hold its 26th annual convention concurrently with NRLC 2011. It will offer workshops and sessions geared toward educating and activating the next generation of pro-life activists.
