

New Charisma Poll: 90% Said Trump's Opponents Are Trying to Impeach Him for Malicious Reasons

A weekend survey by Charisma Media found that 90% of over 1,000 poll respondents in a 72-hour poll say President Donald Trump's opponents are determined to impeach him for two main reasons: 1) They will do "anything to stop him from winning again in 2020" (51%); and 2) the "corrupt deep state fears exposure" (39%). Another 10% say opponents truly believe there was wrongdoing.

Award-winning journalist, businessman and author Stephen E. Strang writes about the plans to impeach Trump at the very start of his presidency, and now those efforts are a reality, as the House of Representatives is expected to vote on two articles of impeachment this week.

Strang is the author of the new book, God, Trump, and the 2020 Election: Why He Must Win and What's at Stake for Christians If He Loses, which will be released by FrontLine, an imprint of Charisma House, on Jan. 14, 2020.

Throughout the new book, Strang touches upon breaking presidential news, including interviews with faith leaders who predicted the mass resistance against Trump along with the current calls for impeachment.

"Democrats, angry that Trump won in 2016, have been trying to get him out of office almost since he was inaugurated, and this latest effort is more of the same," Strang writes in the book's epilogue. "While I want to be careful in predicting the future, I believe Donald Trump will survive this attack too. I think the Democrats know they can't beat him at the polls, but if they can create a 'scandal' and make him damaged goods in the eyes of some voters, that may shift enough votes to steal the election from him.

"But let's be clear," Strang added. "This impeachment inquiry is not about what Donald Trump may have said in a phone call with the Ukrainian president. It's that this president, as imperfect as he may have been in the past, has been standing for religious liberty and righteousness. He has stood with Israel. He is strong. He can't be intimidated."

More than 1,000 respondents took the poll on Dec. 12-15, 2019; polling methods included emailed survey links to those subscribed to receive messages from Charisma News or information about Charisma Media publications, with a plus or minus % margin of error (95% confidence level).

In God, Trump, and the 2020 Election, Strang also discusses the urgency of Christians continuing to support the president, as his policies help hold back the left from crushing the rights of all Americans, including Christians. In 2016, the evangelical community saw God raise up Donald Trump to lead America at a pivotal time. Evangelicals who recognized this backed him more than any presidential candidate in history. Heading into 2020, the stakes in his reelection are even higher. Strang's unique understanding of Christian voters gives him insight into why they supported Donald Trump in 2016 and why he believes they will again in even greater numbers in 2020.

God, Trump, and the 2020 Election is also an inside look into how spiritual warfare is shaping the presidential race, which is an important subject for Bible-believing Christians. The book includes the accomplishments in Trump's first term and his agenda in the second, as well as first-person interviews.

Stephen E. Strang is the best-selling author of God and Donald Trump, which was brandished by the president at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland, in 2018. The founder and CEO of Charisma Media, Strang was voted by Time magazine as one of the 25 most influential evangelicals in America. He has interviewed four U.S. presidents and has been featured on Fox News, CNN, MSNBC, CBN, Dr. James Dobson's "Family Talk," The and many Christian outlets. He also hosts a popular podcast, The Strang Report, on the Charisma Podcast Network.

God, Trump, and the 2020 Election is published by FrontLine, an imprint of Charisma House, which has published books that challenge, encourage, teach and equip Christians, including 15 New York Times' bestsellers.
