

New Music Releases

Best Night of Our Lives

By Everyday Sunday | Inpop Records

“There will be no doubt in anyone’s mind that this is a rock record,” says Everyday Sunday’s frontman Trey Pearson of the band’s new release, Best Night of Our Lives. “It’s more forceful in a lot of ways; it’s definitely more mature. It’s just the best album that any of us have ever been a part of.”

The follow-up to Everyday Sunday’s Inpop debut, Wake Up! Wake Up!, makes a power play in rock ‘n’ roll with its booming title track “Best Night of Our Lives” about life-long friendship, and the full-force “Breathing for Me,” an anthem of surrender. “Where I Ended” reveals a passionate plea for escape and identity in God, while “Here With Me” strips down the sound to a pure acoustic melody.

For more information visit

Click here to purchase this CD.

The Best of Larry Ford

By Larry Ford | Spring House

Larry Ford is an internationally known tenor and a seasoned veteran of gospel music. This CD features audio of many of Ford’s appearances on the Gaither Homecoming video series. The 90-minute DVD is hosted by Bill Gaither and includes a personal look at Ford’s life and family.

For more information on Larry Ford, visit .

Click here to purchase this CD.

