

Newt Gingrich Bashes Obama From the Pulpit

(Reuters/Tami Chappell)

U.S. Republican presidential candidate Newt Gingrich speaks at First Redeemer Church while on a campaign tour in Cumming, Ga., on Sunday. Gingrich also spoke at Rock Springs Church in Milner, Ga. The Republican presidential candidate criticized Barack Obama's decision to apologize after Qurans were burned at a U.S. military base in Afghanistan, calling Obama's actions "disgraceful ... [and] exactly the wrong thing to do."