

NOVEMBER 2012: One (Big) Hope

IN THIS ISSUE ...

One (Big) Hope Relatively unknown in the U.S., OneHope has the vision to reach 4.2 billion young lives by 2030—and is well on its way. But for President Rob Hoskins, dreaming big is all he's ever known.

Rethinking What You Know About the Holy Spirit You may be Spirit-filled, Spirit-empowered and Spirit-sensitive, but do you really 'get' the third person of the Trinity?

When the Spirit Shapes a Nation Evangelist Randy Clark reports on Brazil's miracle-filled revival that continues to change the culture of this South American powerhouse.

Where are the Apostles and Prophets? Amid a season of renewed emphasis on "five-fold ministry," many churches have taken their prophetic and apostolic emphases to the extreme. Church-growth specialist Peter Wagner evaluates where the entire prophetic/apostolic movement has been—and where it's going.

Speaking for God After getting burned one too many times by careless prophetic words, many believers have thrown in the towel when it comes to the prophetic gifts. Can we really trust those who claim to be delivering a word from the Lord anymore?
