

Now Available: This May Be the Most Unusual Christian Podcast You've Ever Heard

Have you noticed a disturbing restlessness—a deepening hunger, a growing longing—all across our nation? Have you sensed it inside your own heart? Do you know what it's about? Rather, do you know who it is all about?

The newly launched “Christ Today” podcast exists for one reason only—to address this restlessness—to feed the hunger, to fulfill the longing. To do so for you. Here's how:

“Christ Today” takes you on an adventure to discover fresh depths of intimacy with the Lord Jesus Christ in the majesty of His supremacy. Frankly, that is who the restlessness is all about.

“Christ Today” helps every Jesus follower explore and experience more dynamic, more life-empowering engagements with the Son of God for all He is right now. With every episode it can seem as if you are meeting Jesus again for the first time!

The podcast's host, David Bryant, has traveled for decades into every stream of the church, working with hundreds of thousands of believers. In addition, he has spent nearly 50 years digging out and teaching Scripture's vision of the glory of our Savior. At the same time, he has given special attention to the dynamics of historic spiritual revivals in church.

As a result, David Bryant is convinced the Spirit of God is once again stirring up among God's people a holy hunger for Christ—for more of Him—for more of all He wants to be to us—for more of who He is at this very moment as the exalted, reigning Son of God.

Therefore, every episode of “Christ Today” uncovers more of our Lord today—the risen, ascended and active king of glory. You’ll discover how Jesus is not only powerfully advancing His kingdom among the nations, but also lovingly feeding the hungers and fulfilling the longings of His own people everywhere, with more of Himself.

Furthermore, every episode of “Christ Today” is backed up by a wealth of free resources and social media available at –the only website of its kind in the entire digital world. All of it is instantly available to help you keep moving into more of Christ.

Episode one, titled “Jesus: Meet Him Again for the First Time,” looks at what this unique experience really means, what happens when it happens to you and how you can enter into such an adventure with Jesus today.

Upcoming episodes, waiting for you right now, include:

- Why Jesus Is the Master of Surprises.
- How to Hear the Voice That Roars.
- What It Means to Be Stupefied With Jesus.
- The Most Important Thing to Know About You.
- Time to Start Wearing Your King Jesus Glasses.

“Christ Today” is available here for free on the Charisma Podcast Network, at iTunes or wherever you get your podcasts.
