

Officers Enter Blazing Flames in Miracle Rescue Effort

California police officers recently “raced against time” to save a man trapped inside a burning trailer.

The life-threatening situation unfolded at the Grand Avenue Mobile Home Park on Dec. 27, when officers with the Grover Beach Police Department received a report of a trailer fire.

Upon arrival on the scene, police learned from people on the ground that a man was stuck inside.