

On Christmas Eve, Discover the Pearl of Great Price

In every human heart there is a place that is forever empty. This pearl alone can fill to overflow the inner hollowness of man.

All gifts that you are searching for are hidden in this pearl. Eternity comes first. The purpose in life and the reason to be. The freedom you long for and the forgiveness you seek. A love like no other. A presence that will never leave you and a spring of joy that will heal your soul. The chance to live once more.

God's might and goodness are also hidden in this pearl. Yet the greatest miracle of all is that, all the while you are looking for the pearl, the pearl is calling upon you. The pearl has a name, and those who know its name have found it. That name is Jesus Christ, our Lord.

The message of this documentary film, The Pearl of Great Price, is that "Jesus Christ is the pearl of great price. If you have Jesus, you have everything."

This film, featuring Paul Wilbur, Katherine Ruonala, Yvotta Attia, Mina Attia, Charles Ndifon, Craig Keener and Medine Keener, will be released free of charge worldwide on Dec. 24 and will be available at . {eo}
