

Opinion: Mike Huckabee Is Strongest to End Christian Persecution and Protect Conservatives

Which presidential candidate will protect Christians the most from going to jail or being fined for their faith? "Mike Huckabee stands out above the others to end the persecution of Christians," says Rev. Steven Andrew, president of USA Christian Church. The minister, who inspires millions, is calling true conservatives to help get Huckabee into the White House.

Teachers, church workers, and others could end up in jail for not voting for a president who insists to have Christian religious liberty like Huckabee, explained the pastor. He believes Christian liberty is the most important election issue and what our founders put first.

Huckabee boldly said same-sex marriage "is not law" at the National Religious Liberties Conference last week. "The people's elected representatives have not made it law, and there is nothing in the Constitution that gives the Supreme Court the power to make a law ... They are not the supreme branch or the Supreme Being," Huckabee said. He defends people like Kim Davis to obey their conscience.

"If you want to be safe with your faith, Huckabee deserves another look. He is the most honest candidate to uphold the Constitution," said the pastor.

Huckabee is in the Fox Business Network and The Wall Street Journal early debate in Milwaukee at 7 p.m. Eastern, but he is not in the 9 p.m. primetime debate. For the first time the former governor, who balanced Arkansas' budget for 10 years, had less than 2.5 percent in the polls needed for the primetime debate.

Huckabee outscores everyone with an “A” grade on the American Christian Voting Guide based on scriptural qualifications.

Trump, Clinton, Bush, Fiorina, Kasich, and Rubio won’t heal our land, according to the guide. They failed God’s leadership qualifications since they would persecute Christians to some degree.

Carson, Paul, and Cruz, who are rated with a “B” grade will not heal the USA as much as Huckabee, based on Biblical analysis.

“Almost everyone I talk to would welcome President Huckabee. People just need to make Huckabee their first choice, not their backup selection,” said Rev. Steven Andrew.

The pastor’s riveting new book, God’s Plan for the USA, reveals seven Bible Keys that solve the USA’s crisis and gives God’s answer for the USA’s future.

“Choosing Christians who fear God for leaders is important because the Bible teaches this is our duty,” said the pastor based on Exodus 18:21 and 2 Corinthians 6:14-18.
