

Pastor Billy Crone: Will UFOs Be Used for Deceptions on the Rapture?

In a recent interview with Mondo Gonzales on Prophecy Watchers, Pastor Billy Crone offered a sobering analysis of how UFO phenomena could be used to explain away the Rapture when it happens. Crone laid out several key points that illustrate how the secular world may seek to rationalize the Rapture by attributing it to alien abductions.

Crone is not alone in this theory, as other voices such as Bishop Alan DiDio and Nephilim expert L.A. Marzulli warn about a coming “Great Deception” based on biblical prophecy.

“One of the most cunning deceptions Satan could use to explain away the Rapture is the idea of UFOs and alien abductions,” Crone asserted. He pointed out that the world’s increasing fascination with UFOs is setting the stage for this deception. Crone believes that when millions of Christians suddenly disappear, the world will be desperate for answers. “The secular world will look for any explanation other than the truth, which is that Christ has returned for His church.”

Crone’s first point highlights the growing acceptance of UFOs as a plausible explanation for mysterious phenomena. He noted that the media and even some government entities are increasingly legitimizing the idea of extraterrestrial life. “It’s no coincidence that as we get closer to the end times, the narrative around UFOs is becoming more mainstream,” Crone said.

Next, Crone discussed how this UFO narrative might align with the Antichrist's rise to power. "The Antichrist could easily use the excuse of a mass alien abduction to unite the world under his rule," he warned. According to Crone, this would be a convenient way to consolidate power and further deceive those left behind.

Crone also pointed out the potential for technology to aid in this deception. "With the advancements in AI and holographic technology, it's not far-fetched to think that false signs and wonders could be created to support the UFO narrative," he stated. Crone emphasized that believers must be vigilant and discerning, as "even the elect could be deceived" if they are not grounded in biblical truth.

Crone urges Christians to be prepared for the Rapture and to share the Gospel with urgency.

"We need to be aware of these deceptions and stay focused on what the Bible says about the end times. The world is going to look for any explanation it can find, but we know the truth. We must hold fast to our faith and be a light in these dark times," Crone continues.

Pastor Billy Crone's message serves as a stark reminder to believers of the spiritual warfare that accompanies the end times and the importance of staying rooted in Scripture as the world spirals toward deception.
