

Pastor Ché Ahn Shares Keys to Becoming a Courageous Leader

In this historic season, we are witnessing a battle taking place for the soul of America. As Christians, so many of us want to see the transformation of our society. But what does true biblical transformation look like?

When we look to Scripture, the book of Joshua shows us a prophetic picture of the spiritual battle it takes to transform a nation. True transformation takes place through the supernatural power of God and the authority of His Word.

Even though God had promised Israel the land of Canaan, God's people still had to fight over every inch of territory in front of them. It wasn't easy, but Joshua led the Israelites into battle—and God supernaturally led them to victory over their enemies.

In this relevant episode of Truth Talks on Charisma Podcast Network, Pastor Ché Ahn shares the keys to being a courageous leader in the midst of a dark and challenging time in our homeland. "I believe that courageous leadership is needed to see the purposes of God come to pass in this crucial hour," says Pastor Ché.
