

Pastor Reacts to Bianca and Kanye's Wild Grammys Fiasco

Did pop culture just take things too far?

Last night's Grammy Award show shocked the world when Kanye West and his wife, Bianca Censori, showed up flaunting all.

It was Censori's outfit that caused shockwaves. Her naked dress was almost completely sheer, exposing her body full throttle.

This outfit stunt was beyond inappropriate for other people to see, leaving many outraged, including Pastor Greg Locke.

Locke took to X where he publicly rebuked Kanye and Censori.

"Kanye, I defended you when you first went on your 'Jesus journey,'" Locke wrote. "Now it's obvious it was a ploy for record sales. You've proven to be a false convert with zero desire to truly follow Christ. This stunt w/ your wife at the Grammy's only proves you're a P-Diddy level pervert."

This response is quite valid when we consider how this kind of outfit is far from respectful of Censori herself, and could immediately cause others to fall into sinful thoughts. By wearing this outfit, Censori is ultimately portraying to other girls that this is the way they should view themselves and treat themselves—as nothing more than a naked body to be looked at by others.
