

Pastor Who Prophesied Trump's Victory: The Elijah Spirit Can Change the Weather

The Elijah Spirit can change the weather, pastor Frank Amadia tells the Jim Bakker Show.

"Remember when they had the tsunami in Japan? The earthquake and tsunami?" Amadia says. "My wife wakes me up at 6:45 in the morning, and she says, 'You gotta pray!'"

I said, 'I pray all the time. Why are you waking me up?'"

The couple's daughter was on Kauai, a Hawaiian island. The waves of the tsunami were beating down the shores on neighboring islands, and the daughter and her husband were evacuated. She'd just phoned her mother to say goodbye because she didn't know if she'd speak to them again.

Amadia says he jumped out of bed and faced toward Hawaii.

"If I be a man of God, the prophet of God, I command now that that tsunami stop, that it cannot touch that Kauai," Amadia says he prayed. "That is my inheritance, that is my child, and as the prophet of God, I command you to stop now."
