

Pat Robertson: 'I Have Walked With the Living God'

The fruit of Pat Robertson's ministry as the founder of Christian Broadcasting Network, Regent University and Operation Blessing, and as a prolific author, is undeniable. He's helped lead multitudes to Jesus as the founder and CEO of the Christian Broadcasting Network, and his flagship program, The 700 Club, reaches millions daily with the gospel of Christ.

But if there's one thing Robertson wants people to understand, it's that God is not just a celestial being who controls our lives. He's the living God, one that everyone—believers and nonbelievers alike—can seek every day for comfort and guidance.

How does he know? His words echo his recent book title: I Have Walked with the Living God, a God who loves us no matter who we are or what we've done.

"What I want everybody to know is that God is accessible," Robertson told Dr. Steve Greene on a recent episode of Greenelines on the Charisma Podcast Network. "He is the Creator of the universe, who is accessible. He hears us and He loves us, and He has a role for us.

"His Word says, 'I have a plan for you.' His Word says that a simple person who has God's promises can see miraculous things happen. God is so great. The God we serve is a God of miracles.

"For me, I've learned to be quiet before the Lord and listen to Him. God will speak to us. The Bible says, 'You will hear a voice in your ear saying if you go to the right or the left, this is the way; you walk in it.' And the Holy Spirit? We are filled with the Spirit to give us direction. ...

“People out there want to know if there is a real God. They’re hungry for Him. I can tell you that there is a God who is true and who answers prayer. He’s there for you. He is love. He isn’t just loving. He’s love itself. And He will teach us if we listen to Him. He will bring blessing to us beyond anything we could imagine.”
