

Patricia Heaton: Antisemitism in the US Could Spark '9/11 Again'

Actress Patricia Heaton is giving a stark warning to Americans everywhere that unless things change here on our home front, we could experience another day of extreme terror.

Heaton spoke to Fox News Digital and described how the increase in antisemitic values in the United States along with the embrace of radical Islam could lead our nation to encountering another horrific day like what was experienced during 9/11.

"It's hard to believe, but we're going to see a 9/11 again in this country if people don't wake up, take a stand and make their voices heard," Heaton said.

Heaton also stated the bewilderment she experienced when people in the United States started to engage with propaganda against Israel.

"After October 7, I assumed that all of America, and particularly Christians, would be standing up for Israel, that there would be a massive outcry on October 8, and 9 and 10 in support of Israel and condemning what had , there was a sort of silence from most Americans and a lot of churches and huge support for Palestine and for Hamas and for Gazans who went in and participated in this slaughter."

Heaton further stated that, "...the whole world is supporting the perpetrators. It's outrageous."

She called for Christians to recognize that the atrocities committed against the Jewish people are also attacks on the values of both Jews and Christians.

"It's very important for Christians to recognize this and support the Jewish democracy, for Judeo-Christian have to remember 9/11. You have to remember the first attack on the World Trade Center, and you have to take seriously these attacks on Jews that are happening on American soil."

As believers, this is a sobering reminder of our spiritual responsibility to stand with God's chosen people. Scripture is clear that His covenant with Israel has never been broken—what He promised Abraham, Isaac and Jacob still holds true today. Just as God was faithful to His word in generations past, He will fulfill His promises to their descendants.

In a time when antisemitism is on the rise and truth is often distorted, Christians must be unwavering in their support for Israel and the Jewish people, praying for their peace, protection and ultimate restoration under God's plan.
