

Paula White Cain Declares Prophetic Prayer Over President Trump

While in the Rose Garden for the 2020 National Day of Prayer, White House spiritual adviser Paula White-Cain spoke a Scripture-filled prayer and prophetic word over the President Trump, the first lady, Vice President Pence and the second lady. Her proclamation included:

“It’s a beautiful day to lift up our Lord and Savior. He is a certain God in uncertain times. And the Bible says, if two or three of us agree as touching anything, it will be done.

“Job 22, verse 28 says if you decree a thing and declare a thing, it will be established. So, God, we come in agreement with Your Word and with Your name—the name of Jesus.”

White-Cain spoke of God’s steadfast and enduring love, asking Him to wrap His arms of love around every person who is hurting, every person who is confused, scared, tired, weary, sick and lonely. She added:

“For Psalm 71:2 says, ‘In Your righteousness, deliver us and rescue us, incline Your ear and save us.’ Psalm 107 says, ‘You deliver us out of the stress and out of destruction.’

“Your Word will not return void, according to Isaiah Chapter 55, verse 11. So I declare Your Word. I declare divine intervention and supernatural turnaround. You will restore this land.

“According to Psalm 118:25. save our nation, oh Lord, and send prosperity now.

“For Deuteronomy 28:8 says, ‘Command Your blessing upon this land.’ You said in Deuteronomy 8:9 to bring us into good land without any lack.

“For Your Word declares in Psalm 33:2. ‘Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.’

“So I declare You right now to be Lord over this nation, over the United States of America, and we receive Your blessing over any plague, over any economic distress.”
