

Paula White Declares Isaiah 54 Over Donald Trump

The group looks like what you may see on a charismatic Sunday morning: brothers and sisters in Christ laying hands on someone, boldly going before the throne of heaven.

Upon closer investigation, one sees the intercessors consist of Kenneth Copeland, Paula White and other famous evangelists gathering around presidential candidate Donald Trump.

They pray for wisdom, for the economy, for Israel and declare Isaiah 54 over the billionaire.

“We just secure him right now by the blood of Jesus,” White prays. “We thank you that no weapon formed against him will be able to prosper. And any tongue that rises against him will be condemned, according to the Word of God.”
