

Pentecostal Pastor Says Winning ‘The Voice’ Was Validating, Humbling

Pastor Todd Tilghman of Mississippi took home The Voice victory this week after slaying his “I Can Only Imagine” performance.

“It’s really validating, but it’s also really humbling at the same time. It’s hard to explain,” said Tilghman, a father of eight.

View this post on Instagram

Ain't no mama like the one I've got. My mom taught me how to serve, and she taught me how to be unbreakable in the middle of trouble. I love you, mom! Happy Mother's Day! #mothersday #mom

A post shared by Todd Tilghman (@todd_tilghman) on May 10, 2020 at 8:12am PDT

Read the rest of this article at Movieguide®. Find out what God is doing in Hollywood!