

Perry Stone: What You Need to Know About the Season of Angels

We are in a manifest season of angels, Perry Stone shares in a recent Charisma Podcast Network interview.

Among the angels is a “generational” angel.

Stone explains: “A lot of times people talk about curses, generational curses, but really Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law being made a curse for us. A lot of times, though, people don’t realize that starting all the way back with the time of Abraham, back in time with Moses and the children of Israel, that there were generational angels that literally were a part of a family lineage.”

Upon this realization, Stone observed an uptick in angelic activity.

“I have noticed in the past two years, that there has been a very unusual increase, it does not happen everywhere. It may not happen, but maybe one service in three months or six months.

“But there was a presence and I know, having experienced several times the presence of an angel of the Lord, it’s not an inward presence, like the Holy Spirit. You feel it’s an outward presence. And most of the time when an angel is in the room, one of the manifestations that happens to you physically is, it just seems like all the hair on your head stands up.”

What happens next? Listen to the podcast to find out!