

Perry Stone's Alarming Dream: A Tsunami is Coming

In a new video warning God's people of what could be heading our way, Perry Stone detailed a dream he had about what's coming for America and how the story of Noah relates to our current situation today.

"Jesus made a statement in Matthew that as it was in the days of Lot and Noah, so will it be at the time of the coming of the Son of Man," Stone says.

He then discusses the emergence of extreme weather patterns that some would consider to be climate change or global warming, but instead Stone says we should view them as the birth pains before the return of Christ.

"It is simply birth pains of the heavens and birth pains on the earth according to Scripture. Birth pains of the Messiah," Stone says.

Stone further explains a dream he had back on July 30 about a tsunami and its implications for America.

In the dream, Stone was on a charter bus with his office director and they were with young people heading to a youth event.

"As we were moving toward these dormitories where all these young people are going to gather...I'm now looking out the right side of the window and I'm seeing now where water that was not there is coming in and is up to the road," Stone recounts about the dream.

"I said, 'Oh my goodness, a tsunami has happened, a tsunami has happened,'" he continues. "I looked up and I saw it coming. I saw a massive wave and when that wave came in, what concerned me was that it was going to come in and go so high that it might actually reach the bus."

After praying for days over the lengthy, lifelike dream, Stone believes he received some insight from the Lord about the meaning behind this tsunami dream.

"I sense in my spirit this is for the United States. I believe it's something that will happen here and God has restrained it from happening because we in the past have made some decent legal decisions in the past that altered the course of where we were as a nation. But I'm going to make this statement. If the United States, the states within the United States, begin to continue to legalize what God considers in the Word of the Lord in the Law of judgments will end up being three things," Stone warns.

The three things Stone warns about are earthquakes in major cities, including in areas where there was no believed fault line, coastal tsunamis and lastly, internal fighting.

"We're coming to a season where God is going to say, 'enough is enough. I give you every opportunity, I give you every blessing and you still don't pay attention and you're just like ancient Israel was in the time of Moses, time of David, time of the kings. You just don't pay attention,'" Stone warns.

Just as Stone warns, we cannot expect God to continue to bless us and give us His favor if we ignore Him and desecrate the things He considers to be holy and pure.
