

Pop Quiz: How Much Do You Know About 'President' Harris?

As a young Catholic boy at Holy Cross Elementary school in Euclid, Ohio, I dreaded only one thing more than a well-deserved spanking. I sweated bullets on Sundays, anticipating Rev. Mother Sister Paulinus starting the week with a pop quiz, for which I was often ill-prepared and regularly embarrassed. No star on the forehead for little first-grade Larry!

Can you relate?

With multitudes still experiencing shock and spinning heads at the lightning-speed withdrawal of Joe Biden and the instant drop-in of San Francisco liberal Kamala Harris, how about we play the pop quiz exercise? Let's run through an honest, documented test to see how much we really know about this progressive Democratic candidate for the most prestigious and powerful position on planet Earth: president of the United States of America.

The Bible instructs us to "test all things; hold fast what is good" (1 Thess. 5:21b, NKJV) so take 10 and give it a try.

Be careful; remember the cautionary definition that the prince of preachers, Charles Spurgeon, gave for discernment. "Discernment is not knowing the difference between right and wrong but rather the difference between right and almost right.”
