

Pope Francis Opens 'Holy Door' Portal on Christmas Eve

After announcing that the Vatican would open five sacred portals on Christmas Eve, many were intrigued by what this meant. As Charisma News reported, this was set to mark the Catholic Jubilee, the first time in 25 years that these "portals," or "Holy Doors," were to be opened. Now, Pope Francis has gone through with this sacred, Catholic tradition.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

In the video of Pope Francis at the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica, he can be seen knocking on the door, it slowly opening and of him being pushed in his wheelchair through the doorway. The Vatican considered this to be the start of the "2025 Jubilee Year of Hope."