

PRAY: Actors Alexa and Carlos PenaVega Rely on God as They Mourn Stillborn Baby Girl

BYLINE: Faithwire/Billy Hallowell

Actors Alexa and Carlos PenaVega revealed the heartbreaking news Monday that their baby daughter, Indy, was stillborn, expressing a deep reliance upon God amid the tragic circumstance.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

The married couple, who already have three children—Ocean, 7, Kingston, 4 and Rio, 2—opened their joint statement on social media by stating there are “never the right words to say when it comes to loss.”

“After a beautiful and peaceful delivery, our daughter ‘Indy’ was born at rest,” the PenaVegas wrote. “It has been a painful journey. But, in the pain, we have found peace.”

The statement continued, “God continues to comfort and hold us in his arms.”

The PenaVegas also credited prayer from the community around them for helping sustain them, and described Indy as being “beautiful.”