

PRAY: 'When Calls the Heart' Star on Life Support After Traumatic 5-Story Fall

"When Calls the Heart" star Mamie Laverock is on life support after falling from a fifth-floor balcony.

News of the 19-year-old star's tragic accident came via a GoFundMe page organized by her family. In it, her parents, Rob and Nicole Compton, said their daughter suffered an undisclosed "medical emergency" on May 11.

Days later, the Hallmark star fell off a high balcony.

"We are deeply saddened to report that, on May 26th, Mamie, who has been in intensive treatment for the past two weeks, was escorted out of a secure unit of the hospital and taken up to a balcony walkway from which she fell five stories," they wrote. "She sustained life threatening injuries, has undergone multiple extensive surgeries, and is currently on life support."

They added, "We are all devastated, in shock, at this intensely difficult time."
