

Prayers for Revival in a Kairos Moment

With revival breaking out on college campuses and churches across America—and around the world—we need to be careful not to miss the day of our visitation.

Now is not the time to stop praying. Now is the time to pray more. Indeed, every revival in history started with prayer. Prayer births revival. Prayer sustains revival. Prayer is the key.

But it's not just any kind of prayer. It's fervent prayer. It's passionate prayer. It's prayer completely dependent on the God of revival to pour out His Spirit.

This month, Awakening Prayer Hubs' theme is Marching into Revival. We're in a Kairos moment, and we're believing for more. We're believing for the Kairos moment to become a Kairos season—and even a great awakening. Will you pray with us?

Pray prayers of repentance: 2 Chronicles 7:14 reads, "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

Pray for God's mercy on the church: Habakkuk 3:2 reads, "O LORD, I have heard Your speech and was afraid; O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years! In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy."

Pray that God would stir you up: 2 Timothy 1:6 reads, "Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands."

Pray that God would make you hungry and thirsty: Jesus said in

Matthew 6:33, "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you."
