

Prepare for an Inspiring Thanksgiving

Before we know it, the holiday season will be upon us. It might be wise to ponder some helpful insights to make it more memorable and meaningful.

May I suggest something simple and practical that you can do to first prepare yourself so you have a more thankful heart? After that, consider trying some things to cultivate a more inspirational time when you gather on the traditional Thanksgiving Day.

Testimony Time

The Bible says Satan is defeated “by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony” (Rev. 12:11b, NIV). Have you taken time recently to reflect on your conversion experience to inspire fresh appreciation for all God has done for you and how His grace miraculously transformed your life? Then will you tell your testimony more consistently to win others to Jesus? It’s been said: “The man with a testimony has it all over the man with an argument!”

Remember your life B.C. (Before Christ) and where you were then? Never take for granted the miraculous transformation that has taken place. Now sing afresh the words penned by former slave trader and blasphemer John Newton, who wrote: “Amazing grace (how sweet the sound)/ that saved a wretch like me.”

Today a young man came to our home to discuss some renovations, and when he shared his testimony, my wife and I were so uplifted that we couldn't hold back declaring, “Praise the Lord!”
